Family Life Catechesis is taught at all levels of faith formation grades K-12. Family Life Catechesis in the Archdiocese of Baltimore is a catechesis for Healthy Relationships. The purpose of this catechetical endeavor is to create a knowledgeable school/parish community that welcomes open communication and a holistic discussion around the issues of moral living, marriage and family, healthy sexuality, and sexual abuse prevention. If you wish to preview the materials or have questions, please contact the Office of Faith Formation. Your signature acknowledges your understanding of this curriculum.
